NOW OBLIGED TO FIGHT

Couragemen Exhorted to Sacrifice For All for Country—Rising or Fall in Balance

Prime Minister, who has been the greatest of our nation's leaders, has today declared that we are now in a state of war with the United States and Great Britain. He has called upon all of us to sacrifice for the sake of our country and to fight to the last breath.

The Prime Minister's rescript is a call to arms for all Japanese. It is a call to sacrifice and to fight to the death for the sake of our country.

Imperial Rescript

We, by grace of Heaven, Emperor of Japan, united on the Throne of a line unbroken for ages uncounted, rejoice again in Our Great and Noble Subjects.

We solemnly declare war on the United States of America and the British Empire. The men and officers of Our army and navy shall do their utmost in preserving the aim, the public servants of various departments shall perform faithfully and diligently their appointed tasks, and all other subjects of Ours shall pursue their respective duties, the entire nation, with a united will shall render their total strength so that nothing will stand in the attainment of our war aims.

To insure the stability of East Asia and to maintain its world peace is the Imperial policy which was formulated by our Great Ancestors Imperial Grandfather and Our Great Imperial Grandfather Yamato, and which We lay solemnly to heart. To maintain this policy among nations and to enjoy prosperity in common with all nations has always been the guiding principle of Our Empire's foreign policy. It has been truly unswerving and for three thousand years the Empire has never been brought to arms evenly with America and Britain. Now that our great Japan has passed into Ours, falling to comprehend the true meaning of the Empire and nobly serving its people, described the policy of East Asia and established the Empire to take up arms. Although there has been no established the National Government of China, with which Japan has offered friendly relations and cooperation, the empire which has succeeded in China, relying upon American and British protection, will continue its activities against Japan. For the realization of this noble and just aim, to American, the United States and Britain, giving support to the Chinese regime, have approached the withdrawal to East Asia. Moreover, they have furthered
