

1. Describe Job: _____

Fill in the # next to the objects		Why did the author include these details?
#of sons	# daughters	Sons and daughters are important because:
sheep	#camels	Camels and sheep are important because:
#oxen	# donkeys	Oxen and donkeys are important because:
#servants (household)	Greatest man among people of the _____	Servants and “greatness” are important because:

2. What occurs in the conversation between Satan and God?

- A. God says (put this in your words) _____
- B. Satan says (put this in your words) _____
- C. So God says _____

3. The First Test destroys: _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.

4. Job’s verbal response is _____.
 What does this mean? _____.
 Look up the meaning of tearing robes and shaving heads: _____.

5. What occurs in the conversation between Satan and God?

- A. God says: _____
- B. Satan says: _____
- C. So God says: _____

6. The second test affected Job’s _____

7. Job’s wife says _____
 At what times in your life do you want to respond like Job’s wife? _____

8. Job’s three friends _____

9. How long did they sit with him? _____ and _____

10. _____ claims that Job must be suffering due to some sin he has committed because a just God would never punish the righteous.

Bible Quiz Job

Name: _____ Hour: _____

11. _____ and _____ agree that Job must strive to exhibit more blameless behavior.
12. _____ claims the children must have caused their own deaths.
13. Since God's ways are inscrutable to Job, he _____ possibly understand them.
14. _____ is the place of the dead.
15. The fourth friend who thinks Job spent too much time proclaiming to be innocent is _____.
16. The two beasts which are the pride of God's creative abilities are the _____ and the _____.
17. God is upset with Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar for spouting _____ and theologically _____ advice.
18. The two types of literary forms found in Job are _____ (story) and _____ (poetry).
19. The painful _____ of Job's situation is that the reader understands Job's suffering is the result of a contest while Job has confusion over the cause.
20. God's anger is that the friends counsel by _____ without _____.
21. The dominant theme of Job is the difficulty of _____ why an all-powerful God allows people to suffer.
22. Yet he suggests that people _____ discuss divine justice since God's power is so great that humans cannot possibly justify his ways.
23. One of the chief virtues of the poetry in Job is its _____.
24. The language seeks to produce an _____ in the listener rather than communicate a literal idea.
25. _____ is also a frequent rhetorical tool for Job and his friends in their conversation.
26. The poetry in Job is a _____ dialogue, for the characters develop _____ and unique personalities throughout the course of their responses.