

Name: _____ Hour _____

English II Research Notes Grade Sheet

YOU are responsible for keeping up with this grade sheet and getting the teacher's initials. The Grade Sheet will not be replaced.

Note grades: 30 notes per day on 3 different sources are due by the end of class every day on the given dates. If you are absent, you are responsible for having the correct number of notes, sources, and/or outline when you return. You MAY have more than 10 notes on A but fewer on B, etc. However, your total number of notes should be 90 and your total number of sources should be 9.

Day	Sources	Total # of notes	Grade
Tuesday	30 total notes are required between these three sources. A, B, and C.	_____/ notes for Source A _____/ notes for Source B _____/ notes for Source C	_____/30 note points _____/4 source points (sources are 1 point apiece and you get 1 point because math and stuff)
Wednesday	30 total notes are required between these three sources. D, E, and F.	_____/ notes for Source D _____/ notes for Source E _____/ notes for Source F	_____/30 note points _____/3 source points (sources are 1 point apiece)
Thursday	30 total notes are required between these three sources. G, H, and I.	_____/ notes for Source G _____/ notes for Source H _____/ notes for Source I	_____/30 note points _____/3 source points (sources are 1 point apiece)
	90 total notes 9 total sources	_____/ 90 notes _____/ 9 sources	Notes + Sources= _____/100
Friday	Use the outline template to help guide you on the fill-in-the-blank outline	Fill-in-the-blank Outline _____	Rough Drafts due next week

These are thesis examples to help guide you when you are developing your paper and doing your research:

1. Person: The most important aspects of Julius Caesar's life are his childhood, his military career, and his time as emperor.

2. Thing: The most notable features of Roman medicine are the resources they used, the training doctors received, and the effectiveness of the treatments.

3. Event: The biggest aspects of slavery in ancient Rome were the beginning of slavery, the daily lives of slaves, and the jobs slaves did.